

Lonely Walk

By: Piet Veerman

Now The Lamps Down The Roads, All Are Burning
The Night Has Come, It's Spreading It's Wings
The Outlines Of The Town All Are Fading
Fading Away Like A Dream

Searching All The Roads To Find
A Young Girl I Once Left Behind
I've Got To Keep On Going
While The Cold Wind Keeps Blowing

Where Can You Be, Now The Town's Asleep
I'd Like To Scream Out Your Name
Going Across Every Empty Street
Trying, To Find Your Place, Your Place, Your Place

I'm Walking But I Don't Know Where I'm Going
I'm Feeling So Lonely Tonight
I've Come Back For These Years, I've Been Yearning
Yearning To Be At Your Side

A Young Girl I Once Left Behind
I've Got To Keep On Going
While The Cold Wind Keeps Blowing
