

This Town Ain't The Same

By: Travis Lewis / Boomer Clarke

I Walked Shadows Of A Backstreet Yesterday
I Couldn't Find The Places Where We Used To Play
Ten Thousand Friendly Faces, All It Passed Away
Things Are Not Way They Were Before
This Town Ain't The Same Anymore

Names We Scratched Concrete Have Long Been Worn Away
Like A First Class Citizens They'll Hurry On Their Way
They Never See The Sun For Buildings Hide The Day
I Couldn't Find An Open Door
This Town Ain't The Same Anymore

This Town Ain't The Same
I Don't Know It's Name
And It Don't Know Mine
Wouldn't It Be Fine
If We Could Change Each Other Back Again

This Town And I Will Never Be The Same
The Girl I Loved Once, Now Has Even Changed Her Name
So I Leave Silently, Silently I Came
And What's The Past Good For
This Town Ain't The Same Anymore

This Town Ain't The Same Anymore

I Changed My Ways And This Town Changes Too
I Ran Away And So Has Anyone I Knew
The Streets And Gutters Whisper Softly "Who Are You"
That's The Question I Ignore
This Town Ain't The Same Any More

Mm Mm Mm

This Town Ain't The Same Any More
This Town Ain't The Same Any More
