

The Best Years Of My Life

By: John Ewbank

As The Leaves Come Falling From The Trees
I Stand Still And Think Of All That Used To Be
And In Every Picture That I See
You Are Always There, Smiling Back At Me
I Had To Go, But I Hope You Know

Like The Sun Keeps Rising In The East
No Night Goes By, That You're Not Here With Me
And As The Waves Keep Coming From The Sea
I Hope That I'll Remain, Inside Your Memory
I Had To Go, But I Hope You Know

They Were The Best Years Of My Life
That I Spent With You, I Spent With You
I Never Told You At The Time
But It Was Oh So True
So Very True
My Time With You, Was The Best I Ever Knew

Right Now These Memories Are All I've Got
But Thanks To You I Sure Have Got, A Lot

As The Leaves Are Falling From The Trees
I Stand Still And Think Of All That's You And Me

They Were The Best Years Of My Life
That I Spent With You, I Spent With You
I Never Told You At The Time
But It Was Oh So True
And So Very True Now

It Were The Best Years Of My Life
That I Spent With You, I Spent With You
I Should Have Told You When I Had The Time
But It Was All So New
So Very New
My Time With You, My Time With You

Like The Waves Keep Coming From The Sea
I Hope That I'll Remain Inside Your Memory