Those Were The Days
By: John Ewbank

I Can Still Recall, And I Remember
How We Had It All
And Though It's Years Away
It Seems Like Only Yesterday
It Seems Like Only Yesterday

Nothing On My Mind, Having Such A Good Time
Carefree And Blind
We Would Laugh All Day
'Cause Everything Was Just Okay
And We Thought That It Would Stay That Way

  Those Were The Days
If I Knew Then What I Know Now
I Might Have Done It All So Different
But Somehow As Time Was Passing By
We Just Didn't Seem To Care
  Those Were The Days
From Teenage Fools To Grown Up Men
We Might Have Made Some Stupid Plans
But Back Then The Time Was Always Right
There Was Magic In The Air
  Those Were The Days
Those Were The Days
  Those Were The Days

What I Wouldn't Give To Travel Back For Just One Day
And If You Ask Me Honestly I Think I'd Rather Stay
'Cause My Heart, It Still Beats For Way Back When

I Can Still Recall, But I Really Know Better Now
It's A Pity I Know Better Now

        Those Were The Days
If I Knew Then What I Know Now
I Might Have Done It All So Different
        Those Were The Days

We Might Have Made Some Stupid Plans
        Those Were The Days
But Back Then The Time Was Always Right
There Was Magic In The Air
        Those Were The Days
Those Were The Days, Those Were The Days
        Those Were The Days
Those Were The Days
        Those Were The Days
A Teenage Fool I'll Always Be
To Anyone Remembering Me
        Those Were The Days
From Way Back When 'Times Were When' They Were
The Best Years Of My Life
        Those Were The Days
Those Were The Days
Those Were The Days
